RIDE DESCRIPTIONS:

These rides are primarily on flat terrain. You will cycle on paved roads in rural Maryland and Delaware through farmland and thoroughbred horse farms, as well as a few residential areas and small towns. There are stores for food and water on each route.

Century (101 miles): Route heads south through Warwick and Sassafra to Millington before heading east into Delaware. After passing through Hartly, Kenton, and Cheswold to Leipsic, the route turns north along the Delaware River wetlands to Port Penn. The final leg returns west along the C&D Canal back to Chesapeake City. Lunch is available at several convenience stores near the midpoint of the route. Please note: After lunch there is a 36-mile section with no stores, so be sure to carry plenty of water.

3/4 Century (77 miles): Follows the century route south to Millington before turning northeast into Delaware. After passing through Blackbird State Forest, enjoy lunch in Townsend, DE, before re-joining the century route and continuing north along the Delaware River wetlands to Port Penn. The final leg returns west along the C&D Canal back to Chesapeake City.

Metric Century (101 kilometers / 63 miles): In 2003 this became the most popular of the five routes. After passing through Chesapeake City, this route heads east along the C&D Canal into Delaware, then turns south along the Delaware River wetlands to Port Penn. After the lunch stop in Townsend, DE, the route returns to Chesapeake City via Sassafras, MD and Warwick, MD. On this route you'll be riding in the opposite direction from the longer routes, so you're likely to pass some of the longer-distance riders heading the other way.

Half Century (54 miles): Follows the metric century route for the first 35 miles to the lunch stop in Townsend, DE. The route returns northwest through Middletown and back to Chesapeake City. If you can do 25 miles in hilly Baltimore County, you should be able to do this relatively flat 54-mile ride.

35-mile Ride: Ride to historic Odessa, DE. Optional tours of historic buildings are available. This route has been changed to avoid a congested commercial area in Middletown, and is more rural than the 31-mile ride from previous years. Food is available at a convenience store at along the route. This route is appropriate for experienced Casual and 10-mph riders.
